Dear Mother
your love

Weymouth
19 March

Shall I
see you A.

I got out
safe last night
by found all
well here. This morning it is a most
violent storm, snow
drifting & wind
blowing. Be sure
I write tonight
how you are.
No wishes to favour

that you
of I have not received his letter, and another

Ms. A. 9. 2. 30. 57

your coming out
when the weather
& your coat permits.
She unites with me
in saying you
had better lay the
whole matter before
Bowditch. If B
thinks she is going to get up - then you can come, if he thinks she has begun a 6 months
or years consumption,
why then you can come.
Why not tell Bowditch
that she wants to have

her family small again
with the addition of nurse
only & then Bowditch can see Mary. "You
ought not to be alone
with servants. You
are too rich," (that is,
if he thinks so.) - I
should not tell B. I.
Wendell. "She wants
me to go, & have few
people in the house
she is used to few
people & she finds it
harder from a
rich bed to regent
a large family.

In short, "lay the
whole matter, before
the whole mess." Ask Wendell to tell Anne Jerry, set 'em all
to thinking. Dont let
em be taken by sur-prise, if you have to come out of town -
talk - Mr G.C. when she is getting dinner she ought to be addressed
~~the~~ ^{as} Sarah Barnes
did her grandmother.
The Lord guide you
make Ann Jerry fully comprehend the case. Dont let her have the pleasure of sitting in judgment
